

SOLVE YOUR WORKPLACE CHALLENGES

... with One-of-a-Kind Publications

Through NJBIA's unique family of publications, Association members can get the full benefit of the latest research and legal tips on issues they care about most.

These publications are researched and written specifically for New Jersey employers. They are designed to help employers meet the challenge of doing business in New Jersey, and they are offered at a significant discount to NJBIA members.

The Practical Guide to Federal and NJ Employment Law:

The Employers' Resource

This user-friendly guide covers State and federal employment-related laws, regulations, and best practices. It is an essential resource for managers and employers seeking to comply with laws and manage workplace risks effectively. Edited by Martha

Lester, Esq., of Lowenstein Sandler's Employment Law Practice Group, this guide provides an explanation of the law, contact information, HR tips, frequently asked questions, and forms.

NJBIA Compensation Report

This report is the most complete industry-wide guide to salaries and wages in New Jersey. It contains information on over 200 job classifications within 12 job families, broken down by geographic region for most jobs listed. It includes the high, low, and weighted averages for each position. An updated Compensation Report will be available in the fall of 2006.

NJBIA Employee Benefits Report

This is the most complete guide to the benefits that New Jersey employers are offering their employees, from healthcare coverage and paid vacations to disability. It contains detailed benefit information on all classes of employees, from new hires to retirees.

Directory of the NJ Legislature

Do you have a problem that requires the attention of your State legislators? In this handy, pocket-sized Directory of the 212th New Jersey Legislature, you will find detailed contact information for legislators in your district. The directory contains legislators' photos and lists of towns they represent, what committees they serve on, district office addresses, phone and fax numbers, e-mail addresses, and the names of their legislative aides. It also lists the members of the Governor's cabinet, the congressional delegation and Senate and Assembly leaders with their key staffs. Every NJBIA member has received one complimentary copy.

